

What is the definition of “working time”?

For the purposes of the Working Time Regulations working time is any period where a Constable of any rank, including a Special Constable or Police Cadet is:

- Working
- At the disposal of Northern Constabulary; and
- Carrying out activity or duty as a police officer

All three elements of this definition must be satisfied.